according to the following Rules of IMCS Awards:

- (6.1.) Each prize consists of one IMCS diploma (signed by the President of IMCS) and one copy of the Hamangia thinker (a Neolithic age clay sculpture, about 4000 years BC, found in Romania), for each winning paper.

- (6.3.) Any registered member of IMCS can propose a candidate for any prize, by sending the relevant information to any member of the IMCS Board or to the Honorary President of IMCS. The nominations are centralized by the Honorary President of IMCS, who also takes care of the voting process.
- (6.4.) The nominations for the year Y should reach the Honorary President of IMCS before 20 of January of the year Y+1. The IMCS Board decides the winners by the middle of February, voting through email messages sent to the Honorary President of IMCS. If suitable/necessary, any member of the IMCS Board can send comments about the nominated papers to all members of the Board.

- (6.5.) The IMCS Board may decide that any of the prizes can be awarded ex aequo, to two winners, or not to be awarded at all.

If a member is not replying even to the second message, then his/her vote is considered abstaining.
- (7.4.) "Majority rule" means that at least half of the IMCS Board have voted (YES, NO, or abstaining) and the decision is made according to the number of YES and NO votes which is higher. In case of a draw, the vote of the President is decisive – unless if the President does not decide to repeat the vote, maybe changing the object of the vote.

(11.2.) If the Society decides to get dissolved, all remaining assets shall be donated to a similar organization, at the choice of the IMCS Board.

Article 12. Provisory statement
